GETTING CONNECTED

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND STUDENT CONDUCT POLICIES
Solving Problems
We connect information, ideas and individuals and thereby solve problems and enable change.

Our goal
Our goal is to produce generations of leaders.
Scholarly Integrity
We support a culture of scholarly integrity.

Respect
We support a culture of respect and appreciation of individual and cultural differences.

Preformance
We certify student performance for the awarding of the degree.

Our Job
Our job is not done unless our students are given the opportunity to make a significant difference in the world.
Living and Learning Together

“By producing generations of leaders, who, through the experience of educational understanding of other people’s cultures... can find in themselves, through intercultural education, the ways and means of living together in peace...”

—William Fulbright, U.S. Senator; Fulbright Foundation

The UD Standard
THE UD STANDARD

• Academic honesty and integrity lie at the heart of the educational enterprise in research and in papers and projects.

• Students are expected to follow the standard.

• Penalties for violations may be severe depending upon the offense and results of due process procedures as outlined in the Graduate Student Judicial System.

• Students can be removed from their program, assistantship or fellowship or the University for violating the Code of Conduct.
How to Avoid an Academic Honesty Violation

- Lack of understanding or know-how is not an excuse
- It is the student’s responsibility to know proper documentation procedures
- Seek guidance from your professors and advisors
- Seek guidance from the Writing Center
- Ask questions if you do not understand
- Plan ahead and do not wait until the “last minute” to complete writing assignments
- Know the rules of using documents found on the WEB
- Be aware of consequences if you do not honor intellectual property
- Follow all appropriate protocols in research results and analysis
ACKNOWLEDGE Whenever you quote another person’s actual words;

ACKNOWLEDGE Whenever you use another person’s idea, opinion or theory, even if it is completely paraphrased in your own words;

ACKNOWLEDGE Whenever you borrow facts, statistics, or other illustrative materials—unless the information is common knowledge.
